th this message I transmit a cert copy of a resolution of congress tad: "Joint resolution proposing an amment to the Constitution of the ed States," forwarded to me by the mable secretary of state of the United as under date of July 26, 1909, with request that the same be submitted be legislature of this *tate for such on as may be had. This resolution ides for an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, as folupmitting this proposed amendment ar action, I do so with the recom-tion that it be not ratified. While delieve in the taxation of incomes as equitable method of raising revenue, while I believe that congress should a sufficient power to readily raise necessary revenues in cases of emercy, I am opposed to an amendment the rives to congress the broad power sting incomes at its plensure. If interest are to be taxed, the revenues ded therefrom in my onlinen should go the street of the taxed, the revenues de-deterfrom in my oninion should go the states from which such revenues derived. The government has so my means of raising revenue to meet public expense and the inland states particular are so limited in their arts to do so that I am strengly op-d to the federal government, through amendment proposed, encroaching on rights of taxation that properly be-to the several states.

OUR YEAR TERM OF OFFICE FOR SHERIFF AND CLERK.

WASHINGTON. Jan. 10.—Declaring that the fight for progressive legislation will go on, Represent tive Norris of Nebrate Criminal prosecutions and indigations are frequently slighted because it here is about to be or has just a change of administration in the house last March, issued a statement to-day characterized yesterday's proceedings a change of administration in the house when Speaker Cannon's decision was sustained, as looking "very much like a frameup, brought about by the speaker and his friends for a vindication."

Mr. Norris said that in yesterday's rule fight, the Republican insurgents with a few Democrats, showed themselves to be of each of these county officials and a tranging the lines of election in the terms of office of district judge district attorney will always overing the terms of office of county clerk tounty sheriff.

I have no doubt that all Utah will join in promoting San Francisco's claim to this exposition, and I respectfully request that the sentiment of the citizens of this state, which has been so unanimous for the Golden Gate City be expressed through the legislature in a resolution indorsing San Francisco as the place for holding the exposition in celebration of the completion of the canal.

G. A. R. APPROPRIATION

The chairman of the executive commit-tee of the G. A. R. encampment, held at Salt Lake City in 1909, has filed with the governor a report itemizing the expendi-ture of the $35,000 appropriated by the eighth legislature for the reception and entertainment of the Grand Army of the Republic at its forty-third national en-campment.

CAPITOL BUILDING.

I again urge the necessity of making legislative provision for the erection of a state capitol building. The increasing demands made upon the state for additional room to accommodate the various departments of state renders the immediate erection of a capitol building an imperative necessity.

EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION.

I recommend an emergency appropri-tion at the hands of the legislature to need the current expenses of state ad-simistration for the first nuarter. With large balance in the treasury I cannot ee any reason why state institutions hould be borrowing money to conduct should be borrowing money to conduct their affairs during that time.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

At the risk of being criticised for tell-ing a legislative secret, but auxious that none of the new members shall violate any of the traditions of this august body, none of the new members shall violate any of the traditions of this august body, just a word in closing.

With commendable economy, the first legislature of Utah placed the control of certain Institutions in non-partisan boards to be appointed by the governor, the members of which were to serve without compensation. All that the legislature required of them in order that they might partake of the honors that the appointment carried, was that they pay a fee of twenty-five cents for notarial certificates of their constitutional eaths, pay for a bond conditioned on the faithful discharge of a multitude of specifically defined duties, attend from one to half a dozen meetings per month, see to it that strict economy was practiced, and report in minute detail their stewardships once in each two years.

All subsequent legislatures have followed this economical practice, occasionally, however, varying the monotony by placing the elective state officials on a half dozen boards.

To these public-spirited men and women who, without remuneration, are devoting their time, their energies and ialents to the management of our state institutions, to the direction of our commissions, and to the control of our boards. I offer, in the absence of a more substantial acknowledgement, my sincere thanks for their faithful and efficient services.

I wish you pleasure in your associa-services.

I wish you pleasure in your associations and success in your undertakings.
